

I FAVOR RM-10352 and urge passage of this rulemaking. The split narrow band/wide band alignments on other ham bands works very well and serves a purpose. I've never understood why the 160m band was the exception. The interference to narrow band signals such as CW by a nearby SSB or AM signal can render the CW signal unintelligible even with narrow filters.

Please pass this rulemaking.

Kris Mraz, N5KM